

QFC Authority imposes a Financial Penalty against MJ Masha LLC

Doha, Qatar, 30 August 2023: The Qatar Financial Centre Authority (“QFCA”) announced today that on 8 March 2023 it imposed a financial penalty in the sum of US$ 1,500 on MJ Masha LLC (“the Firm”) for contravening a Relevant Requirement pursuant to Compliance and Enforcement Rule (“CER”) 6.1.1(C) of the QFCA Rules.

The Firm was incorporated by registration and licensed in the Qatar Financial Centre on 8 April 2018. Pursuant to General Rule 10.5.1(A) of the QFCA Rules, a Licensed Firm must pay to the QFCA the annual fee specified in Schedule 4, and pursuant to Schedule 4 the standard annual fee is USD 5,000; and General Rule 10.5.2 states: (A) the initial annual fee (pro-rated) must be paid in full to the QFCA within twenty-one (21) days of the date of grant of a Licence and (B) subsequent annual fees must be paid in full to the QFCA on or before 1 January of every calendar year. This is a Relevant Requirement.

However: (1) on 9 December 2019 the QFCA issued an invoice to the Firm demanding payment for the annual fee for 2020 in the sum of USD 5,000; but no payment was ever received and this is a contravention of a Relevant Requirement, (2) on 9 December 2020, the QFCA issued another invoice to the Firm demanding payment for the annual fee for 2021 in the sum of USD 5,000; but no payment was received either and this is also a contravention of a Relevant Requirement, and (3) on 9 December 2021, the QFCA issued another invoice to the Firm demanding payment for the annual fee for 2022 in the sum of USD 5,000; but no payment was received either and this too is a contravention of a Relevant Requirement. The QFC Licence of the Firm was subsequently withdrawn on 7 June 2022, but the Firm nevertheless remains registered in the QFC.

The QFCA considers the financial penalty is reasonable considering all the relevant circumstances of the case, namely that: the firm avoided a loss as a result of the contravention, and should not be permitted to benefit from it; however, the contravention was not protracted and time has elapsed since; no financial crime was caused or facilitated; there was no effect on third parties, clients or customers; and the firm is a small non-regulated company with limited financial resources. The QFCA considers the financial penalty imposed is sufficient to deter the Firm, or others in similar circumstances from committing further or similar contraventions.
